FACILITATOR

Ali Boyd is a human rights attorney, litigator, and tech and human rights consultant. Ali has been deeply embedded in the U.S.–México borderlands for over a decade. She has worked with a variety of partners and stakeholders at the southern border, ranging from large institutions like UNHCR to community-based legal services providers like the Las Americas Immigrant Advocacy Center. Furthermore, Ali is deeply familiar with shelter work, having lived and worked at Annunciation House and visited every U.S.–based migrant shelter at the U.S.–México border while conducting research for the UNHCR Border Shelter Toolkit.
